

MEDIA STATEMENT

EMRACE UNITY, OVERCOME INTOLERANCE AND SERVE WITH SELFLESSNESS AND INTERGRITY

Saturday 22 Jun 2024

The National African Federated Chamber of Commerce (NAFCOC) Mpumalanga Province elected new leadership on Friday 21 June 2024.

The Triennial Elective conference took place at Malaga Hotel, Emgwenya, in Emakhazeni Municipality Mpumalanga, said Sizwe Dlamini the newly elected Secretary General.

The conference earlier received the reports inclusive of Secretariat organisational report by the Secretary General, Financial report from Treasury General and the address by the Acting President, he further said.

“Mr Gay Mokoena was elected the NAFCOC President, occupying the vacant position left by the past President Sydney Kunene, Dlamini said in complimenting the newly elected leaders.

Other members elected were

Deputy President	Mrs Thoko Mashiane
1 st Vise President	Mrs Zodwa Nkosi
2 nd Vise President	Miss Juddy Makhubo
Secretary General	Mr Sizwe Dlamini
Deputy Secretary General	Ms Puleng Myambo
Treasury General	Mr Sydney Mamonyane

Conference mandated the elected leadership to select the additional members from reputable business individuals young and old and ensure the provincial leadership have a fair regional representation and required skills set, Dlamini elaborated.

During this Annual General Meeting and Elective Conference delegates from NAFCOC Branches, Regions and Sectors paid tribute to the late Presidents of NAFCOC Mpumalanga Mr Sydney Kunene and NAFCOC National President Dr Sam Motsoenyane. They said the two past Presidents were undoubtedly the greatest business leaders, they epitomised values that will inspire and outlive generations to come, Sizwe Dlamini highlighted as he commemorated the past leaders of NAFCOC.

Dlamini underscored, there is great expectations on the new leadership following on the footsteps of both Kunene and Motsoenyane, outlining the mandate given by delegates to the new leadership beseeching them to urgently embark on projects that will grow the economy of Mpumalanga working with all spheres of Government and other stakeholders and also grow the membership of NAFCOC.

Grow the membership of NAFCOC, work towards resuscitate other sectors and establish new sector that the current economy requires, and strengthen relationship with other business formation in South Africa and Globally, Dlamini emphasised.

The new leadership must emulate the forebears to embrace unity, overcome intolerance and to serve with selflessness and integrity., concluded Dlamini.

-END-

ENQUIRIES: Jabu Mahlangu – Head of Media and Spokesperson NAFCOC Mpumalanga Cell: +27 - 0823766732

info@nafcocompumalanga.org Mahlangu.jl@gmail.com

ISSUED BY THE NATIONAL AFRICAN CHAMBERS OF COMMERCE AND INDUSTRY - MPUMALANGA